

2011
FAEA Winter Meeting
Strengthening Programs through Best Practices and Innovation

Agenda

Thursday, February 24
New Mexico History Museum – 113 Lincoln Avenue
Georgia O’Keeffe Museum Education Annex – 123 Grant Avenue

- 8:30 – 9:00 Registration – NM History Museum
Suzuki Violin students – The Elementary Montessori School
- 9:15 – 10:40 Welcome and General Session One – Leader’s Corner:
Superintendents, Arts Program Leaders, and Charter School Directors – (Auditorium)
- 10:45 – 12:00 Breakout Sessions
- THE HEXAGON PROJECT - Language Arts through the Arts - interconnectedness and kindness – Roni Rohr; and, Youth Art – Janine Shafer – (Classroom)
 - Creating a Comprehensive Program Plan – write your program plan early – Debbie Fleming and Janet Kahn (NM Museum of Arts)
- 12:00 – 1:15 Lunch: Bull Ring Restaurant, private room, 4 choices, $17

In addition to the regular agenda, the following is offered both days in the Classroom

Creating Watercolor post cards for legislators: John Birdsong, Portales artist / teacher

- 1:25 – 2:45 Breakout Sessions
- Advanced Placement/College Board, National Art Honor Society – Jim Lindsey, Kara Wink (Auditorium)
 - Arts and Science in Early Childhood Education – Barbara Garrity – (Classroom)
 - Fractals: Math and Art – Jonathan Wolfe - (Classroom)
- 3:00 – 4:00 Arts Data and the Essential Nature of the Arts – J Franklin Horn – Coordinator of Arts and PE
Aurora, Colorado – (Auditorium)
- 4:00 – 5:00 Meet and Greet: Reception – NM Educators, Arts Educators and Artists
Fran Levine and Inessa Williams, NM History Museum
Ellen Ziesselman, NM Museum of Arts
Jackie M, Georgia O’Keeffe Museum

Robin Earwood – Performer, singer and elementary music teacher, Roswell Elementary Arts Program Creative Learning Center, will sing to remind us all about enjoying life and creating healthy, mutually respectful environments for ourselves and our children. We will also focus on Peter Yarrow’s work with a foundation called Operation Respect: Creating compassionate, safe, respectful environments. The song “Don’t Laugh At Me” emerged from his strong belief in and respect for all children and the adults they will become.

Friday, February 25
New Mexico History Museum – 113 Lincoln Avenue
Georgia O’Keeffe Museum Education Annex – 123 Grant Avenue

8:30 – 8:45 Registration
Mid-School Rock Band throughout the day – Jefferson Middle School, Rob Janov

9:00 –10:25 Breakout Sessions

- Art, Music and Literacy – Rosy Ward – Classroom
- Dance Moves – Kathleen Kingsley – Meem Room
- Elementary Theatre – Algernon D’Ammassa, Dayna Griego – Library
- Teaching Elementary Music – NM Music Teachers – Auditorium

Rotate to different session

10:35–12:00 Breakout Sessions

- Art, Music and Literacy – Rosy Ward – Classroom
- Dance Moves – Kathleen Kingsley – Meem Room
- Elementary Theatre – Algernon D’Ammassa, Dayna Griego – Library
- Teaching Elementary Music – NM Music Teachers – Auditorium

12:00–1:15 Lunch: Bull Ring Restaurant, private room, 4 choices, $17

1:25 –2:00 Legislative Update All Participants Theatre

In addition to the regular agenda, the following is offered both days
Georgia O;Keeffe Annex – (ALL DAY)
Creating Watercolor Post cards for legislators: John Birdsong, Portales artist / teacher
Sharing Electronic information re: Artists Directory; Professional Development Directory;
Lesson Plans and School/District Strengths; Blackboard & Whiteboard –
Georgia O’Keeffe Annex – (ALL DAY)

2:10–3:15 Breakout Sessions

- Reach Out! Get Grants – Ruthann Greeley, Rob Janov – Auditorium
- Bilingual Book created by Taos 5th grade students, story-telling, illustration and media arts – Tanya Vigil, et al. – Georgia O’Keeffe Annex
- How to use Blackboard in the Art Room – Using a Smart board to enhance art lessons, classroom lessons and student learning -- Vicki Evans, Kim Artman – Georgia O’Keeffe Annex

