

GIFTED

- ✓ Prior to July 1, 2012, licensed teachers may add a gifted endorsement to an existing NM teaching license of any level by:

- Verification of 5 years of experience in teaching gifted children.

OR

- Successfully pass a state approved licensure examination in the teaching of gifted students.

OR

- Successfully complete 12 semester hours of gifted teaching methodology/pedagogy coursework at a regionally accredited college or university.

- ✓ After June 30, 2012, beginning teachers seeking to add a gifted endorsement to an initial level 1 license must have 24 semester hours of gifted teaching methodology/pedagogy coursework at a regionally accredited college or university.

- ✓ After June 30, 2012, licensed teachers may add a gifted endorsement to an existing NM teaching license of any level by:

- Successfully complete 12 semester hours of gifted teaching methodology/pedagogy coursework at a regionally accredited college or university.

AND

- Successfully pass a state approved licensure examination in the teaching of gifted students.

NMAC Rule: <http://www.nmcpr.state.nm.us/nmac/parts/title06/06.064.0018.htm>